

PROMOTER BENEFITS

Manage your customers. Our powerful management tools, e-marketing features, and data control put you in the driver's seat to know and market to your customers over and over again. Ticket-e-boo's online sales are open 24/7, making it possible for your patrons to buy a ticket when it's convenient for them!

Save time and money. When you use the Ticket-e-boo system, you'll have more time to promote and produce your event. You will save time, staff, merchant fees, and still sell more tickets.

Stay in control. Ticket-e-boo is a full service online box office. Inventory management, ticket counts, will-call lists, financial and marketing reports can all be administered from your PC over the internet. All figures are in real time and available 24/7.

Flexible solutions for every need. No matter how much control you need, or how much you want our trained staff to handle...we have an affordable solution that is perfect for you. You're in control!

Presale, VIP, and discount tickets. With multiple pricing structures and discount codes, you can offer "special sales", Early Bird Discount Pricing, VIP access, and last-minute discounts to boost sales.

CONVENIENCE FOR YOU

No more wasted time-

- No more coordinating with the printer to print tickets,
- No more picking them up at the printers,
- No more dropping them off at ticket outlets,
- No more wondering about pre-sales or calling outlets for your ticket-counts prior to your event,
- No more picking up money and unsold tickets on the day of your event from multiple outlets,
- No more trying to figure out how all of your tickets sold to settle with the artist, performer or manager – it's all available on-line and tabulated with our easy to review reconciliation reports!

We make it EASY for you!
